NORTHERN KIWANIS COMMUNITY SUPPORT AWARD

NOMINATION FORM

October - December 2017

Excellent (8-10 points):

- Volunteers at one or more entities (agencies, places, churches)
- Work must be significant, not just a few hours a week or a few times a month, and should cover several years, not just a recent effort
- Nomination includes impact made by nominee (not just work, but meaningful and measurable results)
- May include work that impacts children, or volunteer may work directly with children
- Is not the CEO, but one who “labors in the vineyard,” perhaps without having received any awards or formal recognition.
- May be known by one or more Kiwanians, who can provide additional information about nominee’s service.

Good (5-7 points):

- Volunteers at one entity or perhaps more than one entity
- Work is significant, more than a few hours a week or a few times a month, and has been going on for a few years
- Work may have measurable impact or results
- May include work that impacts children
- Perhaps has not received any previous awards
- May be known by a Kiwanian, who can provide additional information about nominee’s service.

Fair (2-4 points):

- Volunteers at one agency
- May not work more than a few hours a week or a few times a month, and volunteerism may have started fairly recently, at least in terms of this nomination.
- Work may have a measurable impact
- May include work that impacts children
- Has not received previous recognition
- May be known by a Kiwanian
